Key Risks

Shareholder Rights

- The company has classes of stock with unequal voting rights or unequal ability to elect directors. Dual-class capital structures can serve to entrench certain shareholders and management, insulating them from possible takeovers or other external influence or action.
- · The company does not have a majority vote standard. A majority vote standard requires that for directors to be elected (or re-elected) to serve on the company's board they must receive support from holders of a majority of shares voted.

- · The company either discloses that it does not have stock ownership guidelines for directors or does not disclose stock ownership guidelines for directors. Best practice dictates that directors maintain a meaningful level of share ownership by a certain time after appointment to better align their interests with those of shareholders.
- At least one director or executive has pledged company stock. The prospect that an executive or director may be forced to sell a substantial amount of shares poses significant

Compensation

• The company has at least one active plan that permits share recycling for options/SARs.

The Key Risks section is company specific and highlights the most concerning issues at this company and those factors most significantly impacting the company score. This section will be different for each company and may include factors that are only slightly negative, depending on the overall governance risk assessment for this company at each pillar.

Key Risks

Shareholder Rights

- The company has classes of stock with unequal voting rights or unequal ability to elect directors. Dual-class capital structures can serve to entrench certain shareholders and management, insulating them from possible takeovers or other external influence or action.
- · The company does not have a majority vote standard. A majority vote standard requires that for directors to be elected (or re-elected) to serve on the company's board they must receive support from holders of a majority of shares voted.

- · The company either discloses that it does not have stock ownership guidelines for directors or does not disclose stock ownership guidelines for directors. Best practice dictates that directors maintain a meaningful level of share ownership by a certain time after appointment to better align their interests with those of shareholders.
- At least one director or executive has pledged company stock. The prospect that an executive or director may be forced to sell a substantial amount of shares poses significant

Compensation

• The company has at least one active plan that permits share recycling for options/SARs.

The Key Risks section is company specific and highlights the most concerning issues at this company and those factors most significantly impacting the company score. This section will be different for each company and may include factors that are only slightly negative, depending on the overall governance risk assessment for this company at each pillar.

("ISS"), or ICS may have provided advisory or analytical services to the issuer in connection with the proxies described in this report. These tools and services may have utilized preliminary peer groups generated by ISS' institutional research group. No employee of ICS played a role in the preparation of this report. If you are an ISS institutional client, you may inquire about any issuer's use of products and services from ICS by emailing disclosure@msci.com.

This analysis has not been submitted to, nor received approval from, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or any other regulatory body. While ISS exercised due care in compiling this analysis, it makes no warranty, express or implied, regarding the accuracy, completeness or usefulness of this information and assumes no liability with respect to the consequences of relying on this information for investment or other purposes. In particular, the research and scores provided are not intended to constitute an offer, solicitation or advice to buy or sell securities nor are they intended to solicit votes or proxies.

ISS is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of MSCI Inc. ("MSCI"). MSCI is a publicly traded company on the NYSE (Ticker: MSCI). As such, MSCI is not generally aware of whom its stockholders are at any given point in time. ISS has, however, established policies and procedures to restrict the involvement of any of MSCI's non-employee stockholders, their affiliates and board members in the content of ISS' analyses. Neither MSCI's non-employee stockholders, their affiliates, nor MSCI's non-management board members are informed of the contents of any of ISS' analyses or recommendations prior to their publication or dissemination.

The issuer that is the subject of this analysis may be a client of ISS, ICS, or another MSCI subsidiary, or the parent of, or affiliated with, a client of ISS, ICS, or another MSCI subsidiary.

ISS Governance QuickScore is derived from publicly disclosed data on the company's governance practices. Scores indicate decile rank among relative index or region. Scores are calculated at each pillar by summing the factor scores in that pillar. Not all factors and not all subcategories have equal weight.
